

INSTEP-WFU London

Robert Johnson

Intercultural Trainer and Consultant
Senior Lecturer in Cross-Cultural Studies

Education:

MA Intercultural Communication, with Distinction, University of Luton (Bedfordshire), 2002
MA Modern Languages (French and German), 2:1, St Anne's College, University of Oxford, 1996

Research Interests:

Developing global leadership competence for international managers
International negotiations and conflict resolution
Pedagogy for critical thinking skills and global citizenship
Japanese language and culture in business
Knowledge creation and sharing across cultures

Selected Publications:

'Whose 'Culture' is it Anyway?' Article for The Linguist (Journal of the Chartered Institute of Linguists), Vol.57 (3), June/July 2018 (also available online: <https://www.ciol.org.uk/whose-%E2%80%98culture-it-anyway>).

'Intercultural Communication: Origins and Destinations', BATJ Journal (Journal of the British Association of Teaching Japanese as a Foreign Language), No.16, Sep 2015 [ISSN : 1477-4704]

'Dear KIDS - One and All: Haikei KIDS no Minasan - Kusa no Ne no Kokusai Shinzen.' [Grassroots International Relations] (2003). Co-author, with T. Nagasaka, R. Curtis and C. Savage. Kanazawa: Maeda

Languages:

French - advanced
Japanese - high intermediate
German - intermediate