

INSTEP-WFU Cambridge

Steven McGregor

Lecturer, University of Cambridge - Peterhouse College

Education:

Bachelor of Science, English Literature, United States Air Force Academy

Master of Science, Social and Cultural Anthropology, University College London

Master of Philosophy, Historical Studies, University of Cambridge

PhD Candidate, History, University of Cambridge

Research Interests:

European Geopolitics

American Geopolitics

International Relations

Military History

Selected Publications:

‘American Peacetime Naval Aviation and the Battle of Midway’, Chapter in New Perspectives on WWII in Asia (Forthcoming)

‘The Silver Waterfall: How America Won the War in the Pacific at Midway’, co-authored with Brendan Simms, Hachette (2022)

‘Seward’s Corollary to the Monroe Doctrine, 1863-1866’, International History Review 43:21 (2021)

‘Jordan Peterson’s Third Way’, The New Criterion (2018)

‘America and Europe in the Age of the Civil War’, Democratic Union Colloquium (2015)

Awards:

President and Varsity Blue – Cambridge University Amateur Boxing Club

Peterhouse Studentship

Shiva Naipaul Memorial Prize (2013, Short-listed; 2021, Runner-up)

US Army Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Commendation with Valor

Languages:

English

French

Arabic